

Italian Immigrant Communities in the UK: The Case of Bedford

Institute of Germanic and Romance Studies (Senate House / Stewart House, Malet Street, London WC1E 7HU; igrs.sas.ac.uk), London, 20 November 2009

- 9.40 – 9.50: Welcome from Uberto Vanni D'Archirafi, Console Generale d'Italia a Londra
- 9.50 – 10.00: Welcome from Lorenzo Losi, Presidente ENAIP UK & from Organisers
- 10.00 – 10.45: Alfonsina De Felice (Assessore Regione Campania): 'Il fenomeno migratorio da trauma sociale a risorsa globale'
- 10.45 – 11.15: Coffee
- 11.15 – 12.00: Lucio Sponza (University of Westminster): 'Lo "strano" caso di Bedford nella storia dell'emigrazione italiana in Gran Bretagna'
- 12.00 – 1.00: Interview with Teodoro Di Nardo (Componente Consulta Emigrazione della Regione Campania) conducted by Margherita Di Salvo (University of Naples)
- 1.00 – 2.30: Lunch
- 2.30 – 3.15: Nicola De Blasi (University of Naples): 'Tra italiano e dialetto alla luce della migrazione'
- 3.15 – 4.00: Arturo Tosi (Universities of London & Siena): 'Bedford in the Seventies: the Italian community and the European Project'
- 4.00 – 4.30: Coffee
- 4.30 – 5.15: Margherita Di Salvo (University of Naples): 'La comunità italiana di Bedford oggi: aspetti sociolinguistici e culturali'
- 5.15 – 6.00: Giuseppe Scotto (University of Sussex): 'From Bedford to London: old and new Italian immigration'

All are welcome to attend (no registration fee). For inquiries, contact anl21@cam.ac.uk or a.lepschy@ucl.ac.uk

Organising Committee: Adam Ledgeway (Cambridge), Anna Laura Lepschy (London & Toronto), Rosanna Sornicola (Naples)

Financed and sponsored by: Department of Italian University of Cambridge, Dipartimento di Filologia Moderna "S. Battaglia", Regione Campania, ENAIP, Italian Consulate London, Society for Italian Studies, The Italianist

Directions: Stewart House is the wing between Senate House and Russell Square; its entrance is at 32 Russell Square. This is immediately on your left as you enter the Senate House car park from Russell Square, or just before the gate on your right as you come through the cloister from Malet Street.